Medals / Finals

- We will host open/male and female finals in the following events based on the criteria below. Swimmers will make finals based on the top 8 highest British Para-Swimming scores achieved in heat swims. If there are swimmers with the same amount of points a swim off will happen after the heats session. If after the swim off there is still a tie on points preference will be given to the swimmer where this is the swimmers Paralympic class event. If there is a still a tie it will go on entry times equated into British Para-Swimming points. All other events will be swam as Heat Declared Winners (HDW).
- Medals will be awarded to 1st, 2nd and 3rd based on the highest points scored in the final or HDW. Group A will be awarded medals in their age group by British Para-Swimming points even if a swimmer makes a final and does not finish in a medal position.
- There will be a maximum of 2 overseas swimmers permitted to enter to finals the top 2 highest scoring swimmers will progress to finals. If there are enough overseas swimmers who would qualify for finals a B final will be explored and all swimmers will be informed at the end of session as to who has made finals.
